

I strongly oppose any weakening of New Jersey's "Do not call" program. I do business with many entities in the course of the year, and hence would be subject to a large number of telemarketers if the program was changed. To allow businesses with whom I've done business with in the past to call me for the ensuing 18 months would essentially disable the "Do not call" I now have placed on my telephone number.